

Agenda for Week 11 - October 16 – 27, 2017

We are continuing our studies of the Middle East; we are now discussing the impact various governments of the Middle East.

This is what we plan to accomplish this week. Please check my “Daily Blog” on my webpage to see what was completed each day. If students are out, they should check the blog to work on what they have missed if possible.

SS7CG3 Compare and contrast various forms of government.

a. Explain citizen participation in autocratic and democratic governments [i.e., the role of citizens in choosing the leaders of Israel (parliamentary democracy), Saudi Arabia (autocratic monarchy), and Turkey (parliamentary democracy)].

b. Describe the two predominant forms of democratic governments: parliamentary and presidential.

EQ: How does religion and culture influence governmental practices and policies?

SUPPORTING QUESTIONS

1. How does citizen participation differ across various specific governments?
2. How can a government be both a theocracy and a democracy?
3. How can government be both a monarchy and a democracy?
4. How can government be classified as all: theocracy, democracy, and monarchy?
